TEN CENTS A WEEK

FLAGLER IS AMONG TEN GREATEST AMERICANS

Now Living, Is Opinion of Writer in Leslie's Weekly.
His Great Work in Florida.

The recent purchase of J. P. Morgan & Co., the eminent banking firm, of $10,000,000 first-mortgage bonds of the Florida East Coast Railway Company marked the first issue of bonds by this railroad company ever offered to the public, and the appearance of the first dollar of outside investment in an enterprise as remarkable as any ever undertaken by a single individual in the history of railway construction.

A few months ago The New York Herald propounded to its readers the question, "Who are the ten greatest living Americans?" The replies were numerous and interesting—numerous because an answer can be readily given by the average reader without prolonging consideration or trouble.

some research; and interesting because, among other things, of the contrariety of the opinions expressed, since beyond one or two notable names, scarcely any two of the responses agreed as to the persons entitled to the designated honor. In the nature of the case no criterion or standard for "greatness" can be prescribed. While eminently proper that those should be considered who have distinguished themselves in the various professions, in scholarship, or for conspicuous attainment in science, art or letters, the public benefactor (under whatever standard may be employed) would seem to deserve equal consideration with them—"that person being a benefactor of the race," as Dean Swift declared, "who causes

Georgia Solons Red Hot After Vendors of Near-Beer

ATLANTA, Ga., July 31.—The first bill to pass the House of Representatives in the fight on what is known as "near-beer" went through yesterday afternoon by the comfortable margin of 86 to 78. It raises the tax upon the imitation of the amber fluid, which the wise legislators know is not imitation, from $500 a year to $1,000 for manufacturers and from $200 a year to $500 for retailers. Each dealer must also give a $5,000 bond to obey the law. Housewives who make wine for household and medicinal purposes are exempt from the act.

Alexander of DeKalb, the prohibition leader, startled the House by dramatically waving two bottles of a famous brand of Milwaukee's favorite beverage and exclaiming:

"I sent a man to get a St. Louis brand and he went to the most respectable place in this city. The proprietor said he could not let the St.

Louis beer leave the premises, but he did give my agent this stuff which you all know is not near-beer but is the real stuff. And we cannot stop the sale under the court's decision that a drink to be intoxicating must contain 4 per cent of alcohol. But we can tax them and if this measure be killed it will die in the house of its friends."

Alexander made a strong appeal to the friends of temperance to rally to the cause and he won on the vote. There was no effort made to filibuster. The bill will have to pass the Senate before it becomes a law. It is not thought that the Governor will veto it despite his pledge not to sign any liquor legislation this session, because this measure is only a clause in the general tax bill which must be vetoed or approved as a whole.

The real fight on near-beer will come later, if the dregs can get their stringent anti-alcoholic bill out of committee.

Sea Island Cotton Market Quiet and Firm Past Week

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 31.—The Sea Island cotton market was quiet but firm during the past week, with prices unchanged from the week before. The demand is limited, owing to the lack of offerings.

Crop accounts continue favorable, although there has been a continuance of excessive rains. So far there have been no serious complaints, but it is anticipated that more or less damage will develop later.

Sales for the week were 413 bales. The following prices were based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

Col. Sidney C. Tapp Dying From Operation in Denver

ATLANTA, Ga., July 31.—Report reached here from Denver, Col., that Sidney C. Tapp, well-known Atlantian and Liberal party candidate for President in 1908, is dying there as the result of an operation for appendicitis.

would be successful, but in the last day or two Mr. Tapp has been rapidly sinking and it is stated there is scarcely any hope for his recovery.

Isn't there something which only a

SUNDAY CLOSING LAW TAKES EFFECT TODAY

NO COOL DRINKS OR CIGARS TO BE HAD AT THE STANDS.

Will Be the Tightest Sunday Ever Experienced Here, if Law Is Rigidly Enforced.

Today will experience another "Blue Sunday" for Gainesville, for all smokers who have failed to provide themselves will be cut off from purchasing the weed.

Under the last stringent Sunday law passed by the city council all places are compelled to close, except restaurants and hotels, and drug stores are limited from 8:30 to 10:30 a. m., and also two hours in the afternoon. You can purchase nothing but medicines from the druggists, however, neither can you purchase anything except something to eat from the hotels and restaurants.

The former law was shaped in a manner that hotels could supply their patrons with cigars, also the restaurants could sell cool drinks and cigars, but this has been eliminated in the present law, and it now means that you get nothing except something to eat.

It is more than probable that some of the dealers will make a test case of the law as it now stands.

two blades of grass to grow where but one grew before."

Therefore, in a comparatively new country like ours, where general prosperity so largely depends upon the development of our national resources and the creation of adequate facilities for their transportation, it would seem obvious that that person is a benefactor of the race whose genius conceives, and whose indomitable courage carries forward to completion, some great and difficult commercial undertaking by which mankind derives a distinct and lasting benefit.

By reason of the magnitude of his achievement in providing a great quasi-public utility, at enormous cost and solely as an individual, without local or Governmental aid, one involving the solution of untold engineering difficulties, and prosecuted through a period of financial disturbance and industrial paralysis unprecedented in our history, Henry M. Flagler unquestionably stands foremost among living Americans in this field of human endeavor. Only an outline of his undertakings can be given within the compass of such an article. This is to be regretted, for, although his railroad has been under continuous construction for a score of years (no less than five thousand men being at times employed thereon) the work has nevertheless been so quietly and unostentatiously carried on that even now the public has no just conception of its nature, magnitude, or importance. Comprehension of the stupendous engineering difficulties involved in much of the work has up to this time been confined to professional engineering and scientific bodies, who have closely watched its progress from the beginning, some of whom have been more or less skeptical as to the outcome.

Having a decided aversion to public notoriety, Mr. Flagler has not employed himself in proclaiming his plans and purposes from the housetops, or in other spectacular advertising. He has been willing, without envy, that others should stand in the limelight. Beginning with the bridging of the St. Johns river at Jacksonville, he has proceeded step by step to construct, equip, and put in operation a railroad six hundred miles long, traversing the entire East Coast of Florida to its southernmost extremity, penetrating for much of the distance a wild, uninhabited, and inaccessible region. It renders Northern markets

'QUAKE RENDS MEXICO FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN

Earth Shocks Raze Towns and Spread Death and Ruin Over Miles of Peopled Land.

MEXICO CITY, July 31.—With Chilpancingo destroyed and Acapulco partly razed and the loss of life problematical, Central Mexico from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Queretaro on the north to Oaxaca on the south, an area of more than 1,000 square miles, was shaken at an early hour yesterday by a series of the most severe earth shocks felt in the region for the last quarter of a century.

The quake was severe in Mexico City.

Reports telling of the loss of life are meagre, but the official figures thus far given show 14 killed and more than a score mortally injured.

While word came from G. Poyros, an American commercial traveler at Chilpancingo, Guerrero, that that city was destroyed and the inhabitants are living in the open, suffering from the elements, the loss of life is not definitely known. The shocks continued at Chilpancingo last night with subterranean rumblings and flashes of lightning, rain and hail.

Six Dead in Mexico City.

Acapulco, Guerrero, was partly razed, but the extent of the damage is not known, as communication with that part of the republic is not well established.

According to observatory records, the first shock was at 4:15 this morning, the oscillations being from east to southwest. It was severe, causing the bells of many cathedrals in Mexico City to toll, breaking crockery and in some instances leveling wells.

The inhabitants of the capital had hardly recovered from the fright of the quake when a second and more severe shock caused an outpouring of nearly all the residents to the streets and open places.

This movement was of a twisting character, and lasted with severity for 20 seconds. Tall buildings swayed, and in some instances crack-

Streets of Barcelona Ran Deep With Blood

PARIS, July 31.—The Madrid correspondent of The Figaro had an interesting interview with the Spanish Minister of the Interior today, in which the Minister said: "The insurrection at Barcelona was of terrible gravity. I don't know if, since the commune, there has been anything so terrible. The battle in the streets, with cannon, the pillage of convents, the explosion of dynamite, and the destruction of the railroad, nothing was missing."

Barcelona Is Cowed.

MADRID, July 31.—Official dispatches from Barcelona say the 5,000 troops in Barcelona have improved conditions in the city. Complete restoration of order is expected when further reinforcements arrive there.

Order is Restored.

PER-PIGNAN, France, July 31.—The Captain-General of Barcelona sent an official telegram to Governor General of Gerona, saying that order has been completely re-established at Barcelona, and that there are many prisoners.

Georgia Senate Votes to Remove McLendon

ATLANTA, July 31.—The Georgia Senate yesterday voted to remove from office Chairman McLendon of the State Railroad Commission, the vote being 23 to 18. McLendon was recently suspended by former Governor Smith on charges of being too lenient with the railroads, in violation of campaign pledges. The House has yet to act on the removal.

Yesterday's action by the Senate was based on a joint legislative investigation into former Governor Smith's charges. The investigation disclosed that McLendon, while commissioner, had sold Athens, Ga., street railway bonds, making a profit therefrom. McLendon claimed this was not unlawful.

Mexico May Prove Its Claim to El Paso, Texas

MEXICO CITY, July 31.—At the Mexico State department last night it was said that an old map had been discovered which showed that the present site of the city of El Paso was on Mexican soil. Senior Beltran Y. Puga is now in Washington conferring with Anson Mills, a member of sion, over the matter. Minister of Foreign Affairs Mariscal says that the Mexican claims are based on apparently a solid basis. The matter has been pending for some time and will be settled during the present year. The settlement will be an amicable one, whichever way the decision goes, according to the Mexican State depart-

MISS LUCINDA BRYANT AGAIN GOES TO FIRST

MISS LORNA MCCREDIE HOLDS
FIRST IN SOUTHERN SECTION.

Miss Estelle Beal Has Nice Vote and
All Leading Candidates Are Getting Good Support.

Miss Lucinda Bryant of the Western Section again makes a tremendous jump in the race for the capital prize and holds the first position with a nice majority. Miss Ludwig is second, and Miss Vida Barron third.

In the Southern Section Miss Lorna McCredie holds the lead, which she has had for the past two weeks, with a large number working hard to obtain the same position.

During the past week The Sun has received a number of clubs from the various candidates, which has helped them considerably in securing large votes, and if they will try this plan while they are not otherwise occupied it will prove most advantageous to them in the count, for the club offers make the votes run up well.

Three weeks from next Wednesday and the contest closes, so all interested had better put in all of the hard hits they can between now and that time.

ed, the pavement opened in places and in the poorer quarters a number of houses collapsed.

So far as can be learned, six lost their lives in Mexico City and environs in this second shock. Two were men of the lower class, the others being three women and a child. Four now in hospitals cannot recover, it is said. After the second shock no one ventured in doors again until daybreak.

Disaster Was Predicted.

The large American colony escaped unscathed. They, with the entire native population, remained in the plazas or squares until daylight gave them courage to enter their dwellings.

The people were terribly frightened. For days these humble folk have been predicting a disaster, because the snow on the peak of the volcano Popocatepetl, visible from here, has been melting. An old Aztec legend declares that when the snows on this volcano disappear so will the city at its base.

The property damage in Mexico City is slight. Some cathedral walls were cracked and scores of walls were sent to the ground, but the main part of the capital showed no signs of the shaking. Officers of the observatory attest that Mexico City rests on an old lake bed, the made grounds acting as a spongy, jelly-like mass which neutralized the severity of the shakings.

All electric currents in Mexico City were shut off during the first shock and the city remained in dense darkness save for flashes of lightning. The wailing and praying of the Indians in the public square added to the weirdness of the situation.

When the sun shone the people returned to their homes, but soon a third shock sent them again scurrying to the streets. This was a lighter shock than the first two.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

available to owners of thousands of acres of land hitherto regarded as worthless. It has created enormous wealth where none existed before, and has led to a marvelous influx of permanent homeseekers and transient winter residents and the upbuilding of prosperous settlements and bustling towns in sections where a solitude prevailed and where for centuries the Seminole and the alligator had undisputed sway and held civilization at bay.

Hitherto, for four months of the year, practically two-thirds of the country's population has shivered with cold throughout our inhospitable Northern latitudes, finding relief therefrom only by fleeing to Southern Europe or the Pacific Coast. Now they are seeking Florida resorts instead and spending their money at home. Mr. Flagler's enterprises having made accessible an American Riviera infinitely larger than that which skirts the Mediterranean, and one which has been made even more seductive and delightful as a winter resort for our people. To accommodate this large transient element, adequate provision had to be made, and at heavy cost, and to that end alone not less than twelve million dollars have been expended on hotels, casinos, golf links, public baths, hospitals, street paving, sewer construction, and other like essentials to health and comfort.

But the most audacious project of Mr. Flagler approaches the road's final stage of completion. Within another twelve months he will have completed and in operation an extension of his East Coast system, a standardized railroad, built out from the mainland, for one hundred and thirty miles, through the waters of the Atlantic Ocean to Key West, by means of a series of massive pier-and-arch viaducts, constructed of re-enforced concrete rising thirty feet above mean water level. The road will link together the keys of islands, some thirty in number, by means of this series of colossal viaducts, some of which are three or four miles in length, and all of them over water varying from three to thirty feet in depth, thereby making Key West the commercial outpost of the country, commanding the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico, bringing Cuba within ninety miles of the great railway system of the continent, and, in effect, projecting our entire railway system hundreds of miles nearer to the Panama Canal than any railway now existing. The advantages which this marvelous ocean highway is destined to afford our commerce with Cuba and the West Indies, as well as with Central and South America, and (on the completion of the Panama Canal) with most of the countries of the Orient, are incalculable. In time of war, its strategical importance as an army and navy base, and its value as a base of supplies, it would be difficult to exaggerate.

In no other country would such a project ever be thought of even as a national undertaking. Nowhere does history show a parallel to it as an individual enterprise. Only a country's strongest, most resolute men are ever identified with great and difficult physical undertakings of this character. Unless a public benefactor like this is for inscrutable reasons to be excluded from consideration as unworthy of recognition for this honor, I submit that it is just that Henry M. Flagler's name should be accorded its rightful place in the galaxy of the "ten greatest Americans now living."—John H. Flogg in Leslie's Weekly.

Vagaries of a Cold.

You can never be quite sure where a cold is going to hit you. In the fall and winter it may settle in the bowels, producing severe pain. In the summer it may give you colic with diarrhoea or summer complaint. Do not be alarmed nor torment yourself with fears of appendicitis or inflammation of the bowels. At the first sign of the pain or cramp take Perry Davis' Painkiller in warm, sweetened water and relief will come at once. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. It is now put up in a large 35c size as well as the regular 50c size.

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acrid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a very insignificant bruise, or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected with impurities which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S. S. S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruption or disease. SANFORD TAKES THE SECOND OF SERIES

ALSO TIES FOR THIRD IN FIVE-INNING CONTEST.

Something Will Have to Be Done if We Expect to Capture Some of the Games.

Sanford came and conquered two out of three and made a tie out of the third game, which was called at the end of the fifth inning that the visitors might catch a train for their home city.

There is nothing to say, except that the article of baseball that the home boys are now playing is nothing like that being put up by the celery lads. Their fielding was almost errorless, a good, strong infield, and their captain knew well his men, and did not fail to go for them when they needed jacking up for a misplay.

The first game here was lost by errors and poor base running on the part of Gainesville in the tenth and eleventh innings, the second game went to the visitors by errors of Gainesville in Sanford's part of the first inning, but the visitors also made a few errors before this game was over, but nothing like the costly ones of Gainesville.

If the last few games are a sample of the way the boys will play ball, they had better not seek such fast company, and try a few rounds with Waldo, Micanopy, and possibly High Springs, for the latter team beat Newberry last Tuesday 35 to 26.

There are some mighty good players on the Oak Hall team; it's a clever crowd of jolly good fellows, but what the people want is some winning ball. Other titles have raised large sums of money and gone after the best stock to be had, and this is just about what will have to be done here if we expect to count for anything in the final wind-up of the season.

Palatka is coming for two games on Thursday and Friday, also Ocala on August 26th, and unless some changes are made we can all guess the result.

Following is the account of the games yesterday as summarized by the reporter:

FIRST INNING—Miller walked.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE

Gainesville People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Sick kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy, Bright's Disease, or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Gainesville proof:

Mrs. James Doig, 302 Alachua avenue, Gainesville, Fla., says: "It is now some time since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and I am glad to say that I have had no need of a kidney remedy. Several years ago Doan's Kidney Pills drove away a severe attack of kidney trouble and time has proven the cure to be a permanent one. I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

AT THE AIR DOME.

Hayco Closes an Interesting Week at This Theatre.

Hayco, who has been the leading attraction at the Air Dome all of the past week, closed his engagement here last night. He states that in all of his travels he likes Gainesville and her people better than any place he has visited.

Manager Wellington has secured for the coming week a comedy sketch by Matheus-Duo, a little boy and girl, and the high price that he pays for this act assures the people that something good will be presented here.

Since the opening of the Air Dome he has met with most liberal patronage, and states that the increased business is due largely to the open-air performances, for it proves much more comfortable.

Disagreeable at Home.

Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. It's not disposition—it's the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Herbine and put your liver in shape. You and everybody around you will feel better for it. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. L. Johnson.

Farmers' Union Picnic.

There will be a grand Farmers' Union picnic held at the famous Worthington Springs on August 18th. A number of good speakers will be present to address the gathering, and everyone is invited to attend and bring well-filled baskets.

No matter how long you have suffered, Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. Mrs. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." It will cure you. J. W. McCollum & Co.

The Live Oak Democrat is a model of typographical excellence.

You may find what you are looking for through a want ad. in The Sun.

The wheat fields of the great Northwest are quite ready to settle the unemployed labor problem.

The waterwagon may be irksome, says The Atlanta Journal, but we have the watermelon to fall back upon.

The best place to buy your goods is at the store which invites you to come through an ad. in The Sun.

Evelyn Thaw is not helping her reputation these days as an angel child, remarks The Atlanta Journal paragrapher.

Tax the automobile out of existence, said a Georgia legislator, and you kill the greatest road builder in this country. More truth than poetry in that solon's remark.

A movement is on foot in Tampa to construct the finest auto race track in the world in that city, and the people of the Cigar City generally accomplish what they undertake.

Government geologists estimate that within 131 years the nation's entire coal supply will be exhausted. Anthracite railroads had better take up a side line and quit cutting melons.

"The Game They Might Have Won" is the caption over a baseball article in The Tampa Tribune of last Friday which could have been just as appropriately used in The Sun of the same day.

The lower branch of the Georgia Legislature has passed a bill taxing dogs one dollar per head. It is said that no man who voted for such a tax in previous sessions of the Legislature has ever been returned as a member.

The Perry Herald says in a headline to a country letter last week: "Bear killed by a man 9 feet long." That was somewhat of a man, surely, and he ought to join some traveling circus and reap a fortune as a living giant. But what we'd like to know is, how long was the bear? says The Madison Enterprise-Recorder.

According to figures furnished The Florida Fruit and Produce News by the transportation companies, the total number of boxes of citrus fruit shipped from the State up to June 1, 1909, was slightly in excess of 5,000,000 boxes. The crop of the coming season will doubtless be considerably larger than that of last season.—Punta Gorda Herald.

The Jax Met heads an article, "Favored Spots in Florida." There is but one favored spot in Florida. In the eloquent language of Governor Bloxham, in his speeches of forty years ago, is "from the Perdido on the west to the bounding billows of the broad Atlantic on the east, and from the dark waters of the St. Mary's on the north to the bright key of the Gulf where the lone exile sits in conscious security under the broad aegis of American freedom." Florida is all to the good.—Jasper News.

ATTEND THE INSTITUTES.

Our observation convinces us that the failure of the farmers' institute to sometimes accomplish that good which might reasonably be expected, is more frequently due to the farmers themselves than to any fault of the institute; but it is not denied that institute lecturers have not always fully measured up to their opportunities and responsibilities as teachers of practical agriculture. The chief cause for the failure of the institute system to do the full amount of good possible, says The Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer, is the well-known conservatism of the tillers of the soil, or their dislike and reluctance to change their methods of doing things.

It is very much easier for all of us to do our work the old way in which long "practice has made us perfect;" and a new way which is much better, and which after practice is also much easier, may at first be very much more difficult than the old way with which we are familiar. This accounts for the tendency to get into "ruts" and stay there.

If the institutes are going to materially aid us, we must avoid the common error of concluding that methods which have been demonstrated as practicable and effective by others on their farms will not also be practical and helpful on ours. We have repeatedly heard men state that such and such crops would not grow on their farms, and later the very same persons making these statements have grown these very same crops successfully and profitably. We have also frequently known men to try a crop, an implement or a method of cultivating or preparing the land and after one trial conclude that "it was not practical under their conditions;" but later, from further trial, they learned that these new things were so practicable and helpful that they adopted them. "What others are doing I can do," is a good motto in such matters. If implements or methods have proved generally profitable on other farms, they are likely to be of value to any man growing similar crops, if given a proper trial.

No institute lecturer is likely to advocate anything he has not tried, or anything which hundreds have not already found valuable and are using under similar conditions to yours; therefore, if your experience differs greatly from that of others the chances are that the fault is not in the crop, the implement, or the method, but in your management of it. If it is of great value to others, we should try hard to make it of value to us. Nine out of every ten who have attended the institutes are ready to admit that they have received much benefit from them, and they continue to attend them regularly every year. If the institutes are helpful to those who attend them, they would be equally helpful to the greater number who do not attend. If it pays a good farmer to attend the institutes, and this is the kind that generally go to them, it will pay all farmers to attend them.

Referring to the foolish bill introduced in the Georgia Legislature to prohibit women from riding horseback astride, The Savannah News says: "Does the 'anti-straddle' statesman at Atlanta not know that Joan of Arc rode her horse man-fashion? And she has now been sainted. Lady Godiva also rode that way, and she has become famous in English literature for her beauty, goodness of heart and purity."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The fragrant guava is once more among us, with possibilities of delicious guava jelly and other delicacies. Guava jelly is famed far and wide, but there are still many housewives who find it difficult to make it to perfection. The principal trouble is too much water in the guavas when put to boil. Much boiling of the juice after the sugar is put in destroys the fine flavor, spoils the light color, and produces in the end a stringy, dark-colored substance with the flavor of burnt sugar. Too much sugar is another mistake often made. A pleasant, slightly acid flavor is desirable and only sugar to taste should be added to the juice. Not all guavas are alike tart in flavor. If the proportion of juice and sugar is just right (remembering that the juice should not have much water in it), the jelly will cook in fifteen or twenty minutes' boiling, be a clear amber, have the right guava flavor, and stand alone when hardened over night.—Aradia Champion.

At an elevation of 9,000 feet, near the summit of Mount San Jacinto, Cal., Supervisor Marshall of the Cleveland national forest reserve has discovered an extensive lake. It is extremely hazardous of access, to the north and south of it there being unscalable spurs with no trails. At one place in climbing the canyon to the summit the water may be seen through a cleft in the rocks. The lake lies much higher than Lake Tahoe. Struggling over the ledge which hides it, Marshall discovered magnificent views. There are indications of a great depth. From the peak can be seen Mexico, Nevada, Arizona, the Mojave desert, Salton Sea, and the Channel Islands, near Santa Barbara.

There is a strong demand for graduates from agricultural colleges, possibly a more continuous and urgent demand than for any other class of graduates. The farmer boy will make no mistake in arranging to take an agricultural course. It will be useful to him in getting a temporary position in order to win back the money expended in his education, and also useful as long as he lives in the cultivation and management of his own farm.

There is considerable talk of a baseball league next year composed of Live Oak, Lake City, Gainesville and other towns. The promoters might as well count Perry in right now. Few things advertise a town like a good ball team, especially a league team, and Perry can put up the stuff and be "it" if the league materializes.—Perry Herald.

Senator Aldrich will give the Senate a week in which to consider his consent to the passage of the tariff bill as agreed upon by President Taft and the Senate and House conferees. At the end of that time the vote must be taken.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. In the manufacture of perfume Italy consumes yearly 1,860 tons of orange blossoms, 1,000 tons of roses, as well as quantities of other flowers.

The Canadians claim to have discovered a diamond mine in Saskatchewan. Samples of the stone found have been shipped to New York for experts to pass on.

The Mexican Government has completed arrangements with the Krupps to establish a plant for the manufacture of Mauser bullets, smokeless powder and gun cotton.

Ghee is used in India as is butter in America and European countries, and in fact is butter, so prepared that it never grows stale, instances being known of its preservation for 200 years.

There are 20,000,000 acres of pine garden forest standing in Prussia today. Half of it belongs to the people in common, either to the State or to the villages. It paid forty years ago an average profit of 80 cents an acre per year. Today it pays $1.65 an acre.

In 1896 there was no Canadian Northern railroad; today there are 7,000 miles of it in operation, under construction, or surveyed. At the present rapid rate of extension it will in a few years form a continuous streak of steel from ocean to ocean, making the third transcontinental highway in Canada.

Beginning not far from the Sea of Azov, embracing all the north and east of the Caspian Sea and extending to the east and northeast of this, is a vast territory, largely exceeding in area that of France, in which every lake and standing pool of water is very brackish or salt, and only running water is fresh. Hundreds of these lakes could be profitably worked for salt if required.

As a laborer the Japanese has ceased to figure in the future of Mexican industry. It is believed the policy of the Japanese Government, announced sometime ago, of forbidding the emigration of the laborer of that country to Mexico will be continued for many years to come and that the administration of the policy will be such as to render the embargo absolutely effective.

LETTER TO J. M. RIVERS.

Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Sir: There are thousands of people saying: "That's what I call a good job of paint, it has worn three years. I'm going to repaint before it needs it; three years is enough."

Those people are a long way behind the times. There are two reasons for painting; those people know only one; they are thinking only of wear; of keeping out water. Three years may be too long for the looks of paint; it isn't half long enough for the wear. If all you want of paint is to keep out water, Devco is good for a dozen years in average places. And that isn't all.

The cost of the job is the first thing to think of, and, if you think of it right, you needn't bother with wear.

The paint that takes least gallons makes the least bill for both paint and painting; people forget the labor bill; it's the biggest bill in the job. A gallon saved is about $5. Five gallons saved is $25. The paint that saves gallons—that's the paint to wear.

Geo. W. Brown, Union, S. C., painted B. F. Arthur's house there twelve years ago with 30 gallons; repainted five years ago lead-and-oil with 25 gallons; last year Devco with 14 gallons. There's $80 saved on paint and labor; don't know what he paid for that 30-gallon stuff; no matter.

Go by the gallons.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVCO & CO.

P. S.: The Gainesville Hardware Co. sell our paint.

A little want ad. will accomplish big results.

A WOMAN'S APPEAL.

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these tortures. She feels it her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will. A simple discovery has been made from the blood, breaks the stiffened joints, purifies the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the entire system. If the above interest you, write to the author, Mrs. H. B. Lamb, Proprietress, Worthington Springs, Fla.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

NORMALITES HAVE PLEASANT EVENING

PRESIDENT MURPHREE OF UNIVERSITY MAKES TALK.

Only One More Week Remains and Most of the Classes Are on Final Review.

That was a rich treat given to the Normal students in the High School Auditorium Friday night. Maj. Floyd entertained the body for a while with microscopic views of both minute plant and animal life. He used a powerful stereopticon with which to throw the views upon the screen. The pictures made were excellent, and much interest was manifested.

As a rest to the eyes from the strong light thrown upon the curtain, the school sang, "The Red, White and Blue," after which Miss Mabel Carroll gave a piano solo. Those who had never heard Miss Carroll play were surprised at her ease and skill. She is one of the finest pianists in the State. Her touch is marvelous.

The good things seem to get to be better things. Miss Jessie Miller, in her inimitable manner, held the room spell-bound with her character recitation. She was so roundly enjoyed that she could not refuse to respond.

President Murphree of the University gave the students a fine talk at the chapel exercises Friday morning. He spoke of his impressions of the National Educational Association, of the dignity of the teachers' calling, and of the grand scenery of the West.

But one more week of the Normal remains. Most of the classes are on the final review. The interest in the work increases every day. There are no signs of growing tired.

A number of the students who are taking grade work will go to Dade City with Prof. Carr and continue their studies in the South Florida Normal Institute until the September examination.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial. This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD.

Oldest Resident Will Soon Celebrate Her Centenary Birthday.

Mrs. Newberry of Waldo will be one hundred years old on the 16th of August, 1909. She is the oldest person in all this section. She has not walked in a dozen years past. She sits in a rocking chair, in which she is moved about the house a good deal of the time usually. She suffers many of the infirmities of old age, but retains her senses remarkably. She has been pious for many years. Her husband died at an advanced age about ten years ago.

One son, Ezekiah, who is about fifty years old, and a daughter, Georgianne, about sixty, have remained faithfully caring for their aged mother throughout all these years, never having married, but choosing rather to devote their lives to her maintenance and care—a fidelity unusual in its degree and its duration, and an object lesson in this day of dishonoring parents.

They have a humble home, have always been able to keep at least the necessities of life and are much respected in all the community. The writer has known them for an average lifetime and numbers them among his friends. They get no pension or other public aid.

It is appropriate that, upon the anniversary of the birthday of this centenarian, there should be some tribute paid her that would make it a glad day for her and her devoted family. It would be genuine charity for those who appreciate the opportunity to replace the home-made bedstead with a new one with comfortable springs, and the rocker that has served many years with a better one to rest herself in.

The writer suggests and requests that anyone who will aid in any sum, however small, to procure these articles, to send same to Mayor L. C. Doane, Waldo, Fla. Acknowledgment of receipts will be made by postal card. Who will be charitable in this case? D. L. BRANNING.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes," says Martin Boyd of Henrietta, Ky. In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by all druggists.

ABOUT ADVERTISING--NO. 4

The Hen and the Doorknob

By Herbert Kaufman

Once upon a time there was a fool hen who sat on a china doorknob for three weeks expecting to get a family. The only thing she did get was experience.

The advertising field is full of "china doorknob propositions"—examples of merchants who expect good newspapers to hatch money out of bad egg business, or who put sound nest eggs under the wrong "advertising hen."

There are three principles to follow in an advertising campaign: First of all, find a business that will stand advertising; secondly, find the newspaper that will make the advertising pay; thirdly, give the newspaper time to pay.

You can't start in to breed dollars in less time than it takes to hatch them any more than you can pull a hen off the nest before she has had a chance to incubate. In both cases you simply waste what has been invested. If you stop too soon you will get a rotten egg instead of a chicken.

Advertise something out of which you may reasonably expect returns, and when you have found what to advertise, take care that you place your copy in a newspaper that can turn the trick. Don't delude yourself with a china doorknob, and don't confuse a "rooster newspaper," which spends its time cock-a-loruming, for a "hen newspaper" that is too busy hatching out dollars to strut about crowing.

FUNGUS FOR THE WHITE FLY

Mr. D. Williams, the well-known orange grower of McMeekin, who was in the city on Tuesday, had with him some samples of orange leaves which showed the damage wrought by the white fly.

The upper side of the leaves was covered with a black mould, and Mr. Williams stated that the color of these leaves gave a clear idea of the color of his orange grove. The under part of the leaves was covered with white fly eggs, the majority of which were being attacked by fungus. The fungus on a white fly egg showed a dark spot on the egg.

Mr. Williams stated that before spraying his trees with fungus there were not millions of white fly in his grove, but billions of them. "They were so thick," said he, "that if I shook a tree branch they would fly up in swarms and light on my black hat until it looked as if covered with flour."

He stated that he procured some of the fungus, which he sprayed on his trees—a little on each tree with a whisk broom. The fungus spread rapidly and is destroying the fly's eggs. His neighbors now have the fly but there are none on his trees. He is positive that the fungus will destroy the white fly, after which the fungus disappears.

Mr. Williams says that there is absolutely no use in trying to fight the white fly where there are umbrella trees, as they breed in these trees and the fungus will not take hold of them there. He has sacrificed his own umbrella trees.

Mr. Williams bought leaves containing the fungus and rubbed them well in water. This water he used for spraying. He says he will be glad to correspond with parties who wish to learn more of the fungus as a destroyer of this destructive pest.—Palatka News.

The Coughing Bean.

To the ordinary housemaid the falling of a house plant into a violent paroxysm of coughing is naturally disconcerting. Yet there are plants which will do this when the broom or the duster begins to make dust fly. This singular plant is the "coughing bean," known to the botanist as the Eutada tossiensis. It is a native of warm and moist tropical countries and cannot and will not stand dust. When dust settles upon the breathing pores in the leaves of this plant and chokes them a gas accumulates inside the leaves and when it gains sufficient strength forcibly "blows off," clearing the pores of dust and making a sound exactly like coughing. At the same time the leaves tremble and the plant actually "gets red in the face" through the sinking of the green chlorophyll grains and the appearance of red particles on the leaves. This plant is sometimes used as a house plant, and sweeping the room sets it coughing, to the intense astonishment of persons not familiar with its peculiarities.—London Chronicle.

Paid For the Kiss.

Lord Northcote was once made curious use of while governor general of Australia, says London M. A. P. Strolling one night through an avenue of somber trees to a friend's house to dinner, he was suddenly pounced upon by a maidservant, who kissed him effusively and pressed a little parcel into his hand. "Here's a sausage for you I can't come out tonight, as master has company," she whispered and as mysteriously disappeared. When he got to the house he found one of his servants loitering by the gate. "What are you doing there?" asked Lord Northcote. "I'm waiting for my sweetheart," the man stammered. "Where is she?" "In service here." "Ah, then, I am right. Here is a sausage from your sweetheart, and she wishes me to tell you that she cannot come out tonight, as her master has company." Seeing that the man looked nervous, he added kindly: "She also gave me a kiss for you, but perhaps you would rather wait until you see her. Here is 5 shillings instead."

Bats Inside Bamboo.

The cutting down of a clump of bamboos in the royal botanical gardens, Singapore, shows that the hollows in the stems of these plants may afford a dwelling place for bats. On the splitting of a joint three bats flew out, and it was perceived that others were within. Care was taken to prevent further escape, and later examination of the joint revealed the presence of twenty-three bats in the hollow. Four of these were adult females and nineteen young ones. Other bamboo joints were also found to contain a number of bats. The species is known as Vesperugo pachypus.—London Scraps.
